

Addor (EA) wires and cables Ltd is a local company that incorporated in the year 2000 and is associated with different suppliers internationally. It is a technology company dealing with a wide array of Technology Solutions and products targeted at the networking industry. Addor is a member of the Adgroup of companies.

We have solutions for multiple technology segments (Optical, Wire, Wireless, Surveillance, Data, Satellite cables & RF connectors) and market segments (Industries, education, Financial, System integrators e.t.c)

Mission:

To create and develop partnerships with our customers whereby we provide quality products, customized solutions and efficient support. We seek to understand and continually meet our clients' diverse needs.

Vision:

To help customers realize their full potential of networking technology, in order to take advantage of new applications.